JOS. BOARDMAN WILL NOT PAY.

Aged Bridegroom Secures New Trial in Breach of Promise Case.

Joseph Boardman, the aged capitalist, whose matrimonial venture with youthful Miss Blanche Walker created a decided sensation and plunged the groom into a breach of promise suit, will not have to part with any of his wealth just yet as a solace to the heart he is alleged to have broken.

After he married Miss Walker, M. Elizabeth Gladstone, a widow with thirteen children, appeared on the scene and claimed that Boardman had made violent love to her, had won her affections and had promised to make her his wife.

She sued him for $50,000 damages, and a jury in San Francisco rendered a verdict in her favor for $25,000.

Today the judgment was set aside by Superior Judge Hunt, who granted Boardman a new trial.

When the old capitalist, who has gone a long way past the allotted three score and ten, announced his marriage to Miss Blanche Walker, who was just out of school and had not reached her majority, there was a storm of protest from the old man's friends. They claimed that the mother of the bride had planned the marriage of her daughter with the ancient groom for purely pecuniary motives.

In the midst of all the trouble Mrs. Gladstone asserted herself. Boardman had resided at her home and she claimed that he had proposed to her and that although she had gone by the half-century mark, she had blushed at his offer of marriage and then accepted him.

She set up the claim in court that her heart, although somewhat old, had received a $50,000 shock when she learned that her intended had taken a child-wife.

The trial of the case in San Francisco developed many sensational features of an old man's love-making.

BERKELEY MAN IS FATALY INJURED.

Large Piece of Timber Falls On Him While Unloading Vessel.

Bert Lee, first mate of the steamer Dispatch, was nearly killed this afternoon while the vessel was unloading lumber at Adams' wharf.

A large timber which was being hoisted off the boat fell and struck Lee a glancing blow on the face and as he stumbled on the wharf it caught him across the chest and pinioned him down.

His nose and the left side of his face were frightfully cut and it is feared he sustained internal injuries.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his wounds were dressed temporarily by Steward Borchert.

He was too seriously injured to be removed from the hospital. Lee's home is at 701 Channing Way, Berkeley.

GRAND JURY NAMES DRAWN IN COURT.

Every Precaution is Taken to Make the Panel a Legal One.

The names from which the new grand jury will be impaneled were drawn at noon today in Judge Greene's department of the Superior Court. Every precaution was taken to comply with the strict letter of the law and prevent any of the jury's acts being attacked on legal technicalities.

Supervisor-elect Horner was among those drawn. Judge Greene was disposed to excuse him on his own motion for the reason that he is a public official, but the District Attorney suggested that he will not take office until January 1, and that in the meantime he must be considered as any other citizen.

Thirty names were drawn, and from those nineteen will be selected next Saturday to act as jurors. The list is as follows:

MEET TO BETTER SCHOOLS

Annual Session of the California Teachers in San Francisco.

Interesting Addresses Are Made by University Professors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 25.—The first meeting of the teachers assembled here for the thirty-fourth annual session of the California Teachers' Association was held today in the parlor of the Palace Hotel, when the council of education met to consider recommendations in the system relating to secondary and elementary schools.

The council is composed of the principals of high schools and county superintendents and the meeting was largely attended. Two addresses were delivered, the first being by Professor State of the University of California, upon the system of accrediting that prevails between the university and the high schools, the second being that of Professor Houston of the same institution, who made a number of suggestions regarding the course of study.

Both addresses were of timely interest and were followed with close attention by the teachers.

In calling the meeting of the council to order Chairman Kirk said:

"Fellow Members of the Council, Ladies and Gentlemen: I have no message to extend to you this morning beyond wishing you the compliments of the season and to congratulate you upon our arrival upon the dawn of a new century."

"The century which is now drawing to a close has been full of the achievements of mankind, and in no respect more than in the field of education."

"In my opinion there is room for a great deal of improvement in the course of study, and I think it is well that we have arranged for a discussion of this during the progress of our meeting."

RAIN NEEDED SOUTH OF TEHACHAPI.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 26.—The following is the Weather Bureau's weekly crop and climate bulletin for Southern California for the week ending December 23:

There has been no material change in the weather conditions since last week's bulletin. Fair weather continued, with dry land winds and no rain. The ground is drying out quite rapidly and a good rain is needed, though grain and feed continue to look well. Plowing and seeding continue, but the work is slackening in places on account of lack of moisture; a good rain would be beneficial both to moisten the soil and nourish grain and feed.

The days were generally warm and in localities nights quite cool, with occasional frost, which did no harm. Oranges are being irrigated. Oranges are moving slowly, all the holiday trade having been supplied.

TWO WOMEN TIRED OF LIFE.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 25.—There were two unsuccessful attempts at suicide here today. A woman supposed to be Mrs. Ada Robinson, engaged a room at 419 North Main street last night and this morning was found unconscious, the room full of gas and the indications pointing to her having opened the jet with suicidal intent. Nothing is known of her except that she came here recently from Peru City, Cal., and her husband is supposed to be in Marquette, Mexico.

Ann's Costa of 256 New High street, swallowed some drug, as yet unknown, but believed to be morphine, and was brought to the Receiving Hospital, where the prompt use of the stomach pump saved her life.

Mrs. Robinson is also at the Receiving Hospital, and though still in a stupor, it is believed she will recover.

NEW ROAD EQUIPMENT.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 25.—In pursuance of its plan to re-equip its road, the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company has let contracts which in the aggregate amount to over $2,500,000. Two thousand and thirty new cars have been ordered, a large proportion of them of the pressed steel class that has lately come into use. For the passenger service, contracts have been let for thirty passenger coaches and ten locomotives. For the freight service thirty-four locomotives are to be built by the Baldwin Works.

BOLD FRAUD JAILED.

Swindler Who Claimed to Be a Cardinal Bishop.

Told French Monks He Was Scalped By Rocky Mountain Indians.

PARIS, Dec. 25.—The Appeal Court has approved the sentence of five years imposed upon an ingenious swindler named Gaudray, who posed in clerical circles here in April last as "Cardinal Bishop of Washington," soliciting funds to convert the young Indians of New Mexico.

Several times Gaudray succeeded in celebrating mass, and once was nearly arrested when on the point of celebrating mass at Strasbourg. Finally he appeared at Montellier, in the Department of Drome, where he lectured to the Trappist monks on "his terrible adventures in the Rocky Mountains, where, he said, he was scalped by the Indians to whom he was preaching the gospel. The fraud was discovered by Gaudray pretending that the Indians of the Rocky Mountains were Esquimaux.

WAIT ON CHINESE GOVERNMENT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—A cablegram received at the State Department from United States Minister Conger, dated at Peking on the 21st inst., states that the formal meeting between the diplomatic representatives and Prince Ching took place on the 21st. Ching presented the credentials of himself and of Li Hung Chang, who was unable to attend owing to illness, to the diplomatic representatives, who handed him the international note. The officials of the State Department are unwilling to venture a guess as to the length of time that will be consumed by the Chinese government.

The last article of the note notified the Chinese government that the occupation of Chi Li and Peking may continue until the Chinese government has complied with the terms of the note. It may be stated, however, that the United States is not bound or affected by this condition. Our occupancy from a military point of view has terminated, and there is no disposition to renew it. As for the other powers, it is expected that the main obstacle under this condition will be found in the difficulty in obtaining satisfactory guarantees upon the Chinese promise to pay indemnities.

ROOSEVELT ON A LION HUNT.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 25.—J. D. Goff of Meeker, Colo., the famous White river hunter, who has been engaged to escort Vice-President-elect Roosevelt on a hunt for lions next month, passed through Denver today en route home from Colorado Springs, where he has been making arrangements for the proposed hunting trip.

"I have about completed arrangements for Governor Roosevelt's hunt and it is going to be an interesting one," said Mr. Goff. "Our primary purpose will be to hunt the mountain lion, but we will run across and engage a few bears on the way."

"We will hunt in Coyote Basin, which has been absolutely free from men with guns this year and there ought to be plenty of fierce game in that section. We will remain in the mountains about three weeks."

CLEVELAND DID NOT VOTE FOR M'KINLEY.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 25.—A controversy having arisen between two Atlanta newspapers over the charge by one of them that former President Cleveland had voted for President McKinley at the last election, the Atlanta Journal today received in reply to a telegram an autograph letter from Mr. Cleveland, in which he says he did not vote for McKinley.

MANY CHINESE KILLED.

One Thousand Boxers are Laid Low By the French Troops.

Villages Are Burned and Many People Flee For Their Lives.

BERLIN, Dec. 25.—Field Marshal Count von Waldersee, in a dispatch from Peking dated Monday, 21st, says: "The French troops encountered, December 23d, east of Chochan, between Peking and Pao Ting Fu, a Chinese force numbering 2,500 men with artillery. The Chinese fled in the direction of Kuan Hsien. They suffered losses and left behind them five standards and four cannons. The Chinese probably consisted of the remnant remnants of a body already dispersed."

GARDINER IS OUT OF OFFICE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—Eugene Phillips, who last week was appointed District Attorney of New York county, assumed the duties of the office today. Mr. Gardiner surrendered his office under protest. He said to his successor:

"I would like it to be clearly understood that I do not voluntarily surrender this office and that I protest against the action of the Governor as being without authority in law."

"I am anxious, while protesting against this act and reserving all my legal rights, that the public business shall not be injured nor retarded, and to that end I will be pleased to cooperate with you in any way that you may think best in the public interest."

Mr. Phillips replied:

"I thank you cordially for your kind words and your offer. It is hardly necessary, because I feel that you are ready to give any assistance in your power, and I shall not hesitate to call on you. I thank you."

Then Colonel Gardiner began the work of formal introduction of Mr. Phillips to all of his staff.

William Devery Will Resign as the Head of the Department.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—The Evening Telegram says:

Report has it at police headquarters today that the application of Chief of Police William Devery for retirement is in the hands of Police Commissioner Sexton.

Whether this is true or not, there is a belief amounting to almost certainty that Devery will retire this week and that the new year and new century will see another at the head of the uniformed police force of the city.

If retired Chief Devery would have $3,000 a year for life.

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 26, 1900

The reform committee in New York says that vice can be suppressed in two hours. The punsters must be laughing on a tidal wave in the Galveston.

One holiday over and another in sight—New Year's Day. The man who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow can at least get a chance to rest off during the Christmas season.

It is now declared that England will stand upon her rights concerning the Nicaragua Canal. That is a far more sensible position to take than attempting to stand in Uncle Sam's way.

The San Francisco mint coined $1,200,000 in gold during November, and yet there are a lot of people who fall to the advantage of their opportunities to get part of it, which they can easily do by honest industry and exercising the brains they possess.

The Anglomaniacs across the bay must be rejoicing exceedingly at the heavy logs that have been piling there of late. It must remind them more than ever of "dear old Lannon," in addition to which it gives them a sort of half excuse for turning up the ends of their trousers.

The usual winter accompaniment of blizzards, hurricanes and other such disturbances is reported from the East. What a striking comparison this makes to our own gorgeous climate, where even an overcast is unusual and the workman attends to his outside jobs in his shirt-sleeves, just as if it were the middle of summer.

An Ohio scientist has made a collection of 3,000 live mosquitoes, so that he can test the theory that declares they carry disease germs. Presumably the evolution in the room where they are imprisoned will make it a sure thing that he will get an opportunity to think out his theory without at least the fear that he will get sleep.

A CHANGE OF HEART.

The Chicago Chronicle, which was established to represent the Democracy of the Windy City, and which was the only morning paper that supported Bryan has made a complete flop since election day, and is now enrolled as one of the strongest supporters of the McKinley administration. From its attitude in opposition to the re-election of the Philippines it has turned an absolute somersault and is now radical in its advocacy of expansion. In a recent editorial it openly avows that it is the duty of this government to formally annex the island group and further more clamors for a large chunk of China as the most satisfactory method of settling the troubles in that unhappy country. A convert to imperialism is always a radical, and the Chicago Chronicle is no exception to the rule, though it evidently misunderstood the policy of the Republican party, it would not advocate a course of land grabbing. The American people do not care for additional territory, but at the same time they cannot avoid assuming responsibilities which have been thrust upon them, not accepting conditions as destiny has shaped them. The Administration stood upon that proposition and the American people supported it, and it is the one that ought to be followed. We cannot expect ourselves of the control of the Philippines without doing so. At the same time we are not at all anxious to do ourselves up with territory which we are not compelled to take.

A BLOW AT BOSSISM

In removing District Attorney Gardner from office in New York city and replacing him with a Democrat of recognized probity of character Governor Roosevelt has again exhibited his fine executive qualities. Gardner was under the complete control of Tammany, and he saw to it that none of the clan were brought to but for their futile violation of election laws. The District Attorney is clothed with tremendous power in New York and can add the cudgel to his sword. This authority Gardner used to the utmost in protecting the interests of his political friends, and crime was winked at, no matter how glaring the offense might be.

Roosevelt did not act hastily. He appointed a committee to investigate the reported misdeeds of justice, and when convinced of their truth he promptly exercised his authority and removed the tool of Tammany, appointing in his stead a Democrat whose record shows that he has the courage to vigorously enforce the law. There was not a trace of partisanship in the act, for the Governor could have appointed a member of his own party to the place, which carries a large salary and other emoluments. In a sense he would have been justified in doing so, but Roosevelt decided wisely that a Democrat was entitled to the position, so he selected one of the ablest and best lawyers in that party to succeed the corrupt and biased official.

With a new District Attorney in power who is not under the control of Tammany there will be no need of a reform crusade such as has been planned, as the law, if carried out without fear or favor is amply capable of controlling and eradicating conditions that do not tend to the public weal. The trouble has been in New York that Tammany has invariably secured control of the police department and the District Attorney's office, and when so entrenched presented an invulnerable front, as it could protect its own favorites and punish antagonistic interests. A new order of things will, however, be ushered in now as a result of Roosevelt's courageous action.

DESERVED TRIBUTE TO GOV. GAGE.

The action of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce in adopting resolutions commending the course of Governor Henry T. Gage in regard to the bubonic plague was a well-deserved tribute to an official who has earned the gratitude of every good citizen of the State. The prompt and energetic action of Governor Gage at a time when the Federal quarantine officer and the San Francisco Board of Health were declaring San Francisco a plague infected city undoubtedly saved not only that city but the entire State from an injury that it would have taken years to repair. The continuance of the quarantine and the embargo that would have been placed upon California products by Eastern consumers would have meant a loss of millions of dollars to California fruit growers alone, to say nothing of the various other industries affected. The traveling public was seriously inconvenienced by the quarantine restrictions, tourist travel to California had stopped entirely, and the business men of San Francisco were threatened with ruin.

In this crisis Governor Gage acted with the energy, courage and good judgment that his characterized all his official acts. He came to San Francisco, made a searching investigation of the alleged plague cases, and finding no valid foundation for the wild reports that had gone forth under the sanction of the board of Health and the quarantine officer, he telegraphed to Secretary of State Hay that no bubonic plague existed or had existed in California. As the Governor's telegram was backed up by the signatures of many physicians and business men of the highest standing, Secretary Hay could not but be convinced of its truth and the quarantine was promptly raised.

Governor Gage's course has been amply vindicated by events, though he was subjected to much hostile criticism at the time. No more has been heard of the bubonic plague, and it is not likely to be revived again in the future. For all of which the entire State owes a debt of gratitude to its fearless and able executive.

MOB LAW.

Three negroes were lynched by an armed mob in Indiana last week for the murder of a white man. The lynchers routed the officers of the law, broke into the jail and without any form of trial hanged the unfortunate victims of their wrath. Of course murder is not a trial for which any apology can be offered, but it is far more excusable under the moral law than lynching by a mob that proceeds without right or license to inflict a punishment upon the transgressor or that is solely an attribute of the law. Civilization has in thousands of years built up a bulwark about the individual that insures him a right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness and these principles cannot be infringed unless by some act of his own violates the sanctity of another's rights. He is then given the guarantee of a fair trial by a duly organized tribunal before which the question of his guilt or innocence is established by evidence deduced under certain limitations which must be satisfied by a jury composed of unbiased and unprejudiced men.

Thrones have been overturned and dynasties outlawed because these great principles and rights of civilized justice were trampled upon or suppressed, yet in this age there is to be found a class that presumes to count as might this great tribute to the efforts of civilization and asserts the right to defy the law and execute summary vengeance upon those who transgress in more than an ordinary manner. That the relatives of a murdered victim would become incensed with a desire for retaliation is more than likely, while it is also possible that the crime may have been so atrocious as to have shocked the community, but that it could have excited hundreds of people with a passion to take summary action is not probable. The lynchers cannot palliate his act by claiming that he was prompted by an uncontrollable impulse, or that he was impelled by excitement and an excess of passion. Mob law always proceeds deliberately and systematically and calculate coolly and determinedly, and therefore is not the product of a sudden frenzy which might in a measure condone their acts. If popular clamor is to be taken as a rule of justice we have only to go back to the days of the French revolution to appreciate the consequences and rather than such a travesty it is far preferable, no matter how dilatory our courts may appear, to leave the administration of justice to them. Better that crime should go unavenged than that the rabble should act upon its own brutal impulses and be permitted to inflict the penalty. A determined effort on the part of the officials to bring to justice those who participate in these outrageous acts and law and order would unquestionably have a salutary effect, but as long as crimes of this nature are winked at and practically encouraged, as has so lamentably been the case of late, we will not only invite and receive the criticism of the rest of civilization but we will be attacking the very foundation of our existence as a nation by undermining and destroying the pillars of justice. We have had altogether too many of these lynching bees of late, and it is time to crush them out with an iron fist, no matter who or what suffers in consequence.

BALLADE OF AUTUMN.

We built a castle in the air,
In summer weather, you and I,
The wind and sun were in your hair—
Gold hair against a sapphire sky!

When autumn came, with leaves that fly
Before the storm, and lose the palm,
You fled from me, with scarce a sigh—
My love returns no more again!

The windy lights of autumn flare;
I watch the moonlit sail go by;
I marvel how new men and fare,
The weary business that they ply!

Their voyaging is vainly,
And fairy land is all their gain,
And all the while of winter cry,
"My love returns no more again!"

Here, in my castle of Despair,
I sit alone with memory;
The wind-whirl has left his life his hair,
To keep the outcast company.

The brooding owl he hoots hard by,
The hare shall stand on his heath-
stone,
The fly-mother's southern prophesy—
My love returns no more again!

ENVOY.

Lady, my home until I die
Is here, where youth and hope were slain;
They fill the ghosts of my July,
My love returns no more again!

Reed Defines a Trust

Here is the latest Tom Reed story that is amusing the capital, says a correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle. His representative colleague, Mr. Chandler met the Speaker one day in New York during the recent campaign and said to him: "Mr. Reed, I have read your book on trusts and I am sure that it is a masterpiece of logic and common sense."

Mr. Reed was one of the few who have retired from Congress voluntarily.—From William Curtis's Washington Letter.

No one knows better than those who have used Carter's Little Liver Pills what relief they have given when taken for dyspepsia, indigestion, pain in the side, constipation, and disordered stomach.

Recently there have been several cases of prominent men suddenly falling in collapse just after eating a hearty meal. These men have all been under treatment for gastric "trouble," and yet the result shows that the treatment they had received had smothered the symptoms but had not retarded the progress of the disease.

There is a real danger in the use of palliatives when there is disease of the stomach and the allied organs of digestion and nutrition. The disease in such cases goes on, while the distressing symptoms alone are stopped. Presently, like a smothered fire, the disease breaks out in new places, involving heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, or some other organ.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery results in a radical cure of diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc., when the disease of the organs is the origin in the diseased condition of the stomach and digestive and nutritive system.

"I will tell you what myself and family think of your medicine," writes Mr. M. M. Wardwell, of Lincoln, Nebraska. "I was taken sick three years ago. I got so weak I couldn't lie down, nor stand up, was that way two or three months. I picked up one of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery one day and saw your description of the disease. I thought it fit my case. We had a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the house that was got for me. I took one and one-half bottles and was well. My medicine cost me three dollars and the doctor cost me fourteen dollars."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

and heard a great deal about trusts during this fight for the Presidency, and I have seen various definitions of a trust. Now I would like to know from you just what a trust is. A trust, said Mr. Reed, "is easily defined. It is a body of very rich men entirely surrounded by water."

MARRIED IN A TREE.

Novel Wedding of Young Couple Chased By a Bull.

When the minister and the two lovers who were having a tiff were all treed by an angry bull, then followed the queerest wedding on record. Charlie Bangs and his sweetheart, Emma Swaner, left their home, near Montrose, a town not far from Susquehanna, Pa., one evening recently to go over to Great Bend to attend the wedding of one of their friends. Young Bangs' attention to other girls whom they met irritated his fiancee so much that when the time came to go home the lovers were on very poor terms with each other. The minister accompanied them, but the party was a very quiet and uneventful one.

On the way home they crossed a field that was pre-empted by a bull noted for his ugly disposition. The bull soon let them know that they were trespassing, and he charged down on them all three scudding for their lives. Bangs was in the lead and the minister followed him. Bangs also was the first up the tree, but the minister waited until he had hoisted Emma up before he hoisted himself. Once up there every one began to feel much better that, in spite of Bangs' haste to lead the retreat, a reconciliation was effected on the sunny roof of the loughs. Suddenly it occurred to one of them that here was a chance to have a record-breaking wedding, and then and there the marriage ceremony was performed. Pretty soon the owner of the bull came along and drove the animal away, when the liberated party went at once to the home of the bridegroom.

Mr. Dockery Forgoes.

Alexander Dockery, who has been elected Governor of Missouri, like the rest of mankind, is a creature of habit and comes strolling into Washington this year at the opening of Congress, as he has done for the last twenty years.

Dockery is absent-minded, also, and forgot that he was to enter a member of the House of Representatives. On the first day of the session he entered the hall, hung his coat and hat on the old peg in the cloak room, said good morning to the doorman, so into the barber's chair and was shaved and then went out and took his former seat about half way down the third aisle on the Democratic side. A new member from Virginia noticed a fine looking specimen of statesmanship occupying his chair and chatting familiarly with the neighbors around him, but was too much of a gentleman to interrupt the conversation, so he went off and sat down somewhere else. When the House was called to order Dockery nodded assent as he took his seat and bowed his head reverently during the chaplain's prayer and then listened attentively to the reading of the Journal to see if he could detect anything to criticize or to object to, but it was short and sweet and offered no chance to find fault. When Mr. Hull offered a resolution for the consideration of the army bill Dockery arose to discuss the proposition when somebody pulled his coat tail and reminded him that as members are not permitted to participate in debate, Dockery turned back in the face, left the House and grabbed his overcoat and hat and rushed over to the room of the Committee on Appropriations. From that time he has not entered the House of Representatives.

Mr. Dockery was one of the few who have retired from Congress voluntarily.—From William Curtis's Washington Letter.

British All Right.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. KNOW HIS BUSINESS.

Know Something Besides What He Reads in Books.

The wise, up-to-date, modern doctor is no longer the dotard to the hard and fast rules of what his medical books say he shall use and what he may withhold in treating his patient.

The successful doctor nowadays is the one who is quick to avail himself of any remedy, new or old which holds out a chance of cure no matter whether it is Allopathic, Homoeopathic or neither one.

Dr. Jernison, in an interesting article on indigestion and dyspepsia says: "Nine tenths of all people who apply to me for advice and treatment think they have this ailment or that ailment, but I find on close examination that their whole trouble arises from four directions.

"They have little appetite and if they do have an appetite the food they eat does them no good. Why? Because it is not properly digested, causing flatulence, weak nerves, sleeplessness, aching bones, pains in chest, formation of gases, belching, etc. They tell me they believe they have indigestion, or heart disease, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact most every disease but the right one.

"In reality the whole trouble is in the stomach and nowhere else. Now what do I do with such people? I don't feed them on pre-digested foods like babies, nor 'stomach bitters' nor patent nostrums which I know nothing about. No honorable physician will prescribe a remedy unless he knows what it contains and its probable effects.

"For all such patients I have but one prescription. I advise them to go to the nearest drug store and get a 50-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I use them with remarkable success in all cases of indigestion and stomach trouble, because I know what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets consist of and what they will do. They contain the vegetable essences, dextrose and government test pepsin which are the things every weak stomach lacks to restore natural digestive vigor and if I had dyspepsia myself it is the one remedy I should take.

"When a patient comes to me complaining of dull headaches, sour stomach, bad taste, nervousness, belching of gas, or heart trouble which is generally caused from indigestion I tell him to take one or two of Stuart's Tablets after each meal and as often during the day as he has any trouble and I feel confident I have given that patient the best advice I could give."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, containing dextrose and pepsin combined with fruit and vegetable essences. They are not 'cathartics' and do not act on any particular organ like ordinary drugs but simply act entirely on the food eaten. They are a natural digestive, pure and simple.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents per package throughout the United States, Canada, and Great Britain.

CHICAGO WANTS TO OWN CAR LINES.

Radical Bill Will Be Presented to Next Legislature.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—A municipal control and regulation of street railways, with popular safeguards in the nature of a permissive referendum and an open system of financing and provisions for ultimate municipal ownership, are the main features of the bill to be presented at the next Legislature by the Street Railway Commission of Chicago.

The measure has been completed and passed upon by lawyers and is now ready to go before the members of the City Council for approval and the General Assembly for passage. The main points are:

Regulation of street railways in the interest of the public by city council. Modified franchise law.

Repeal of existing street railway act. Street railway grants to be submitted to vote of the people. If City Council orders or ten percent of the voters ask for such method.

Future grants to street railway companies may contain provision for municipal ownership without compensation at expiration of the grant.

City may purchase street railways at expiration of grants.

Cost of acquisition to be defrayed by street railway certificates of indebtedness, but no bonds are to be issued against the credit of the city.

Creation of street railway fund for receipts, interest on bonds and other moneys received throughout traction legislation.

Uniform manner of bookkeeping for all traction companies, the books to be open to inspection by State Auditor at all times.

No bonds to be issued by any street railway company except upon permission of a State board appointed to pass upon the matter.

Detailed statement of financial condition of every street railway to be presented to State Auditor yearly and made public.

The street railway bill is to be followed by the subway bill, to be drawn in accordance with a resolution adopted by the Council on February 5, 1900.

Both bills are expected to reach the Legislature in January.

BREAD FOR POOR AT COST PRICE.

Philanthropists Asked to Aid Co-operative Brotherhood.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—An appeal to Andrew Carnegie, John D. Gould, Nathan Straus and all other wealthy philanthropists will be issued by the officers of the Co-operative Brotherhood at once, asking them to help the movement of the Brotherhood to establish co-operative bakeries and provision stores for the poor in this city.

"Bread and provisions are to be sold in these stores at cost prices. The necessities of life are to be sold without profit. One thousand dollars toward starting a $2,500 co-operative bakery has already been subscribed by members of Bakers' Union, No. 1," said President Stokes.

"I was one of the organizers of the co-operative movement in Belgium and have been engaged in work of this kind all my life. Neither politics nor religion has anything to do with our movement. Workmen of all religious beliefs and political opinions are asking to join this movement. It already has a strong trade union backing of 5,000 workmen, who are ready to carry on this work unaided. But at the same time if there are wealthy philanthropists willing to aid us we shall jump at any offer of assistance that may come from them. With the capital they have at their command they could set the co-operative movement in this country so solidly on its feet that it would last as long as the nation."

Fire in Chicago.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—A stockyard fire early today caused a panic among the guests of the Transit House and resulted in the destruction of the noted O'Leary clubhouse, entailing losses aggregating $60,000. Aside from the clubhouse the building of four stories contained a white lead factory, gun factory and a hardware store, the stock in nearly all of which was almost totally destroyed. The Transit House, which is across the street from the burned building, was at no time in danger.

DEATH SUMMONS MAN UNJUSTLY ACCUSED.

Henderson Glover Said to Have Died of a Broken Heart.

He Was Once Arrested for the Famous Judson Robbery.

Word has been received here of the death of Henderson Glover at his home in the Santa Cruz mountains, near Los Gatos.

The sad news was telegraphed to relatives residing at Fruitvale, but the cause of death was not announced in the message.

Gossip, however, clings fast to the theory that Mr. Glover died a broken heart from sorrow over a ruined reputation, and that ever since his arrest on a charge of complicity in the great Judson robbery, about nine years ago, he had never been his former self.

Mr. Glover's death recalls all the details of the celebrated robbery. The paymaster of the Judson Manufacturing Company was robbed in June, 1891, in broad daylight, while he was in possession of $15,000. He was held up by two masked men and robbed.

The crime was one of the boldest in the history of local criminality. The entire police force and many private detectives were employed to search for the robbers. After several clues had been run down, Henderson Glover, and his stepson, both of whom were friends of the paymaster, were arrested on suspicion of complicity in the crime. Preliminary examinations were held, but no evidence was brought out upon which the accused men could be remanded for trial and they were released.

Then Glover and his stepson commenced suits against the Judson Company for heavy damages. Both were non-suited. Glover's complaint was filed, but the actions never came to trial. The suits were compromised out of court, and the report at the time was that the corporation paid heavily for the false imprisonment of the men. Attorney Fitzgerald says, however, that his clients only paid the costs of action and he does not think the amount was over $200.

Soon afterwards Glover made several large investments in realty and bank and note stock, and this set the scandalous tongues of gossip wagging. Tales of heavy damages from the Judson Company were again put in circulation, though members of the family vigorously denied all stories. Henderson Glover had received an inheritance of $25,000 from the estate of relatives in the East.

Mr. Glover was a native of Boston, 70 years old. He came to this coast in '78. He leaves a widow, daughter and son.

BOXERS FORCED TO RETIRE.

They Fled Before the Troops of the Powers and Left Cannon

PARIS, Dec. 26.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Peking, dated December 25th, says the detachment of French troops, commanded by General Baillois, were recently attacked by Chinese regulars and Boxers at Tsi Tseou, south of Pao Ting Fu.

The punitive expedition took the village after a lively combat.

Many cannon and a quantity of provisions and ammunition were secured. On account of the hostile attitude of the population, General Baillois burned the village and also those villages in the neighborhood.

The Chinese loss was 1,000 men. General Baillois' force sustained no loss. The Christian-Chinese fanatics have been maltreated by the Chinese regulars.

BOXERS BURN MORE CHRISTIANS.

Report That Nineteen Missionaries Have Been Murdered.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. PEKING, Dec. 26.—The French report encountering 25,000 Chinese and capturing five flags and a number of guns and inflicting a great loss upon the Chinese thirty-five miles south of here. The report is generally discredited. According to the rumor the French did not suffer any losses themselves. It is believed, however, that the French probably met a roving band which was dispersed, a number of the Chinese being butchered. Li Hung Chang says that he is satisfied that the story is false.

Rev. Mr. Kelly, a Presbyterian missionary, has reported to Minister Conner the burning by Boxers of Nineteen Catholic Christians. He says, however, that his information has been derived entirely from Chinese sources. The Japanese, who have jurisdiction of the territory, thirty miles north, in which it is alleged the outrage occurred, will investigate the report.

UNHAPPY DAYS FOR THIS LAD.

George Warner, 15 years of age, poor and apparently friendless, was taken to the Receiving Hospital this morning suffering from appendicitis. He has been making his home at the Parcel Delivery studios and earned a precarious living doing odd jobs about the place and driving one of the wagons. He was taken sick last week and was cared for at the stable until his condition alarmed the other employees.

Supervisor Church interested himself in the case and it was through his influence that the boy was admitted to the hospital. Dr. Stratton will attend him.

French Troops in Tahiti.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The Normandie of the French line, which has just arrived from Havre, after a stormy voyage, brought five French gendarmes in full uniform who are going to Tahiti, the principal island of the Society group, in the South Pacific, which is owned by France. They were in charge of a sub-tenant and came from Lyons. They will relieve a like number now in Tahiti. They will cross the continent to San Francisco and will there embark for their destination.

DESPERATE FIGHT SAYS AGUINALDO IS AT HEAD OF A LARGE FORCE.

Thirty Men Battle With Axes, Clubs and Lumps of Ice.

Several Fatally Injured in a Row That Starts Over Religion.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. BANGOR, Maine, Dec. 25.—A bloody battle occurred Christmas eve at Adams & Knowlton's lumber camp on Chase stream, Upper Kennebec river, and police and physicians, none of whom are nearer than thirty miles, have been summoned to the scene. The fight started in a dispute between a man known as "wild" Hennessy and a Frenchman named Philip Oullette, over religion. Hennessy being a Protestant and Oullette a Catholic. The two fought first with fists and soon resorted to clubs.

In a few minutes the fight became general and about thirty men engaged in a terrific battle with axes, limbs of trees, and lumps of ice. A teamster named Wilson attempted to stop the fight and was laid senseless with a blow on the head.

Then a teamster named Taylor took a hand as peace-maker and laid out with all kinds of weapons. In a few minutes the ground was strewn with victims of Taylor's powerful blows and those who had been injured in the general mix-up. It is thought that of the twenty or more hurt some will die.

NEW PRESIDENT OF THE S. P. IS ON THE WAY.

On the trip west Chief Engineer William Hood and General Manager Julius Kruttschnitt will be in the Hays party. A special train will be used by the railroad officials, and it will run only during daylight, so as to allow Mr. Hays personally to inspect the road. Mr. Hays is expected to reach here by January 1st.

The rooms on the fifth floor of the building at Market and Montecito streets formerly used by the C. P. Huntington are to constitute the new president's offices.

Charles Lincoln has been appointed District Superintendent of the Pullman Company, with headquarters in this city. He will report to Superintendent Jesse Mehan.

TRUSSILLA MARKS A GREAT "SIEBEL."

Miss Drussilla Marks of this city has already achieved an enviable reputation in her profession as a singer of leading contracts in London and Europe. For four years she has been under the direction of the leading voice-builders in Italy, singing at times as understudy for famous artists. She recently opened an engagement in London in connection with the Royal Opera Company, which presented in an unrivaled manner the opera of "Faust." In this great work Miss Marks, whose stage name is Drussilla Marks, appeared in the role of "Siebel," in which she displayed her rich and sympathetic contralto voice with such effect as to electrify the audience, which filled the Druxton Theater. Miss Marks was immediately offered an engagement with the company for three years, but declined the offer, as she intends to return to her home before accepting any lengthy engagement. She is accompanied by her mother and will return to Oakland for a short visit, after which she will go East and follow her professional calling.

WAS THE VICTIM OF BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Isaac Hersprung, a second-hand furniture and junk dealer at Broadway and Third street, reported that shortly after 6 o'clock last evening he was made the victim of a brutal assault by two unknown men.

According to his story there was a loud rap at his store door, and when he unlocked it, expecting to find a bottled customer, one of the men struck him on the head with a blunt instrument. Not a word was spoken by the two strangers, and they made no attempt to search Hersprung or rob his place.

At the Receiving Hospital, Acting Stenographer Pardo dressed and attended the junk dealer's scalp laceration.

WOMAN IN BLACK; A TURKEY THIEF.

A woman in black and heavily veiled has appeared hereabouts in the role of turkey thief. She called yesterday at the home of Charles H. Childs on 424 Hanover avenue, and offered for sale some trinkets she had in a basket. Finding no purchaser for her wares, she spied a fine dressed turkey, and while no one was watching she thrust the turkey into her basket and disappeared. All attempts to locate her failed.

MISS ALICE NIELSEN SCORES A TRIUMPH AT MACDONOUGH.

Society Turns Out in A Brilliant Audience Largest House But Force to Welcome Her.

BY HENRY A. NEWBERRY OF THE TRIBUNE EDITORIAL STAFF.

Any one who imagines that Oakland is a gay town, theatrically speaking, would have experienced a Saul of Tarsus by attending the performance of "The Singing Girl" given at the Macdonough last night by Alice Nielsen and her superb company. Outside of grand opera I have never seen such a triumph as Miss Nielsen enjoyed and sang her beautiful music with a purity of tone and finish of method that evoked enthusiastic applause. The beautiful waltz song was demanded again and again, and in the song when Miss Nielsen dances an accompaniment in wooden shoes she was compelled to respond to so many encores that she was exhausted when the applause finally subsided.

Oakland has a warm place in its heart for Alice Nielsen, not merely because she is an operatic star of the first magnitude, but for the reason that this city is in a sense her home. Miss Nielsen's mother resides in the northern part of the city, and it was while a resident of Oakland that she began the stage career which has been such a brilliant one. Last night the audience contained scores of strict church members who ordinarily are never seen at the theater, but were out in force to do honor to an Oakland girl.

Miss Nielsen's company is the finest light opera organization ever seen in Oakland. There was not a flaw in the performance.

HOBSON. Heroism of the Hero of the Merrimac Still Unrewarded.

The Bankers of Europe Want the Powers to Underwrite a Loan.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: A new effort is likely to be made to induce Congress to grant recognition of some kind to Naval Constructor Richmond P. Hobson for his conduct in sinking the Merrimac in the harbor of Santiago.

There has been a revival of interest in Mr. Hobson's case, as a result of the sympathy his illness has caused, and Secretary Long stands ready to heartily endorse any proposition in line with the recommendation that Congress may be willing to make.

Mr. Hobson was anxious some months ago to be transferred to the line, and failing in such transfer, to be advanced in his own corps, but the controversy brought about by the claims of friends of Rear Admiral Sampson and Schley in connection with their promotion caused Congress to take no action in any of the Santiaago cases. The Department hopes Congress will adopt the system recommended by the Secretary, providing that medals and increase of pay be conferred upon officers distinguishing themselves in action, and an effort will be made to obtain action after the beginning of the new year, though the chances of success are very slim.

Following the appointment of Naval Constructor J. T. Howells to be the successor of Rear Admiral Philip H. B. Horn, chief constructor, when the latter retires on March 4th next, several changes in the stations of officers of the construction corps will occur.

Naval Constructor W. N. Woodward, now serving as principal assistant to Rear Admiral Horn, will be assigned to duty as a member of the Board of Inspection and Survey, succeeding Naval Constructor W. L. Capps, who will be appointed superintendent constructor of the New York navy yard. J. H. Munard, superintendent constructor at League Island, will be designated as Mr. Browlie's principal assistant.

ARTHUR BROWN WINS A PRIZE IN PARIS.

Arthur Brown Jr., of this city has been awarded the Godebout prize for architecture in the Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris, where he has been studying for some time.

This is an acknowledgment of the exceeding genius and ability of the young man.

It is all the more to be esteemed because comparatively few students are allowed to compete for it and among that few there was only a small number of Californians.

The successful winner of the prize is the son of Arthur Brown, who was chief engineer for the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. His achievement has been a source of pleasure to relatives and friends.

AMERICANS TO THE FRONT IN CHINA.

They are Leading Other Countries in Matter of Enterprise.

The Japanese People Not Behind Time in Picking Up Trade.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, Dec. 25.—In the course of a review published in the Morning Post today of the conditions existing at Peking H. J. Whigham, the well-known newspaper correspondent, says there are now a quarter of a million inhabitants pursuing their ordinary avocations in the American quarter.

The markets are all in full blast. He adds that the American and Japanese quarters are in all respects the best managed, "showing ability on the part of the Americans to handle a subject people which they have not developed elsewhere to proper advantage."

Continuing Mr. Whigham says: "This enormous portion of the city is policed by exactly one company of infantry and a few mounted men under a most capable command."

If only these hard-headed soldiers of the provost-marshal type had been given a free hand in the Philippines the task of subjugating the unfortunate islanders would have been much more simple.

If the Japanese have come out of the mud with flying colors they at least have the Americans close behind.

It was worth sending an expedition to China, if only to get a few hints on transport from the Americans. Their scheme of municipal government could not be beaten by the British, who have learned the business experience in every quarter of the globe.

For the point of contrast it is only necessary to walk down the avenue of the Chinese city dividing the United States and Germany. The American side of the street is simply Peking in the ordinary garb of peace, minus its variegated smells. The opposite side is almost deserted.

The Germans have come to the American side for meat and vegetables, and it is whispered that the country people are sometimes robbed as they bring in the produce, except where the gates are British, American or Japanese. That is within the markets of the quarters controlled by the powers.

A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette dated Monday, December 24th, says: "Much irritation has been caused by the activity of the German troops in the districts under British protection. So acute has been the feeling that there has been a question of the British seceding from the ally command."

FERRYBOAT HAS VERY NARROW ESCAPE ON BAY.

The Hay City had a narrow escape from a collision with a scow loaded with coal on the 2 o'clock trip from Oakland yesterday. At the time the ferry boat left Oakland there was a dense fog on the bay. The captain of the boat was proceeding with caution, when suddenly in the middle of the bay a big scow loomed directly across the bow. The ferryboat's engines were reversed just in time to avoid a severe collision.

THINKS BOER WAR IS OVER.

Canadian Colonel Does Not Credit Alarming Reports.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 25.—Colonel Otter and a number of officers and men of the First Canadian contingent, which did such excellent service in South Africa, have reached here after an absence of four months.

Colonel Otter said that the Royal Canadians reached South Africa 1,030 strong, and after six months' service were asked whether they would continue in the service. He said that the men were reduced to a skeleton of 750 men, decided to serve six months longer. At the end of the twelve months service the Canadians were again asked to make a choice. Three hundred of the 600 on duty decided to return, as the war was then considered to be over by those in the field and their old situations were, in almost every instance, vacant.

The others decided to remain some time longer, and did remain until it became apparent that the campaign had reached a guerrilla stage, when they also decided to return.

The present operations in South Africa, the Colonel considered, would not last long. In spite of the alarming reports and the operations of a guerrilla nature he did not consider that there was any room for a serious view of the situation.

In conclusion he pointed out that from first to last there were 941 casualties in his command out of a total of 1,030, but many of the men were, of course, able to resume service after a few days' treatment in the field hospitals.

BIG SHIP COMES TO OAKLAND WITH LUMBER.

The large Washougal, with nearly 1,000,000 feet of lumber on board, was brought to Oakland Harbor creek yesterday to discharge. While tugging heavily in a storm off the coast on December 12th, after the tug Samson had cast her drift, the large had to be lightened by throwing 200 tons of lumber into the sea. The eight men report that they were at no time in danger. A spirited quarrel took place between the captains of the tug Samson and the Washougal, but the heads of the tug Samson had picked up the large first when the Samson was hired to look after it. The Washougal captain, who had a right to claim his load, as the large, finally gave way to the tug Samson, which had been slow to get out tide.
